President Warren Slocum made opening remarks about the new Chambers of the Board of Supervisors at 500 County Center, Redwood City, at its first Regular meeting of the Board this day, Tuesday, September 24, 2024, as an historic day since the first Chambers of this County Board opened in 1910 in the old County Courthouse; and then again in the 1950s at the Hall of Justice in 400 County Center.

President Slocum gave thanks to his friend and former colleague, the late Fmr. District 3 Supervisor Don Horsley, who was the Board President when this project first began as he also served on the advisory committee; sharing that Don Horsley's vision was for this building to speak to the importance of the work that we do here.

President Slocum also thanked Fmr. District 2 Supervisor Carole Groom for her contributions and vision for the project; and for the green vision of District 1 Supervisor Dave Pine. He thanked District 5 Supervisor David J. Canepa for partnering with him on the project advisory committee for the past several years, and County Executive Michael P. Callagy and all teams involved.

Vice President David J. Canepa, Supervisor Noelia Corzo, Supervisor Dave Pine, County Executive Callagy, and John D. Nibbelin made remarks about the new County Office Building (COB3) and new Chambers. President Slocum credited Deputy County Executive Adam Ely and Interim Project Development Unit Director Sam Lin for their work, and asked Adam Ely to speak.
