

THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS
COUNTY OF SAN MATEO, STATE OF CALIFORNIA
RESOLUTION HONORING AND COMMENDING

Briana Evans

For Her Unwavering Service Upon her Departure from Redwood City

WHEREAS, BRIANA EVANS has served as a transformative leader and catalyst for racial equity, justice, and belonging across Redwood City and throughout San Mateo County, advancing work that has challenged systemic inequities and built programs toward fairness, accountability, and community power; and

WHEREAS, BRIANA EVANS has consistently centered the voices of those most impacted, uplifting Black residents, immigrant families, youth, and historically underserved communities, ensuring that government decision-making reflects lived experience, truth-telling, and collective healing; and

WHEREAS, through her courageous bridge-building across Redwood City, BRIANA EVANS strengthened relationships between communities and local government, creating new pathways for visibility, dialogue, and policy change, and demonstrating that transformative public service must be rooted in trust and community partnership; and

WHEREAS, BRIANA EVANS's leadership in uplifting young people has amplified the brilliance, creativity, and resilience of Redwood City's youth, ensuring they are not only engaged but empowered to shape the policies and future of the city they call home; and

WHEREAS, BRIANA EVANS worked fearlessly to advance Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) across San Mateo County, persistently pushing local government to live up to their stated values and inspiring other public servants to lead with courage, compassion, and clarity; and

WHEREAS, BRIANA EVANS is now stepping into a new role as Assistant City Manager for the City of Danville, Virginia, carrying her commitment to justice and community-centered leadership across the country, while her legacy in Redwood City and San Mateo County will continue to shape policies, strengthen relationships, and move the region toward a more equitable future.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Board of Supervisors of the County of San Mateo, State of California, hereby recognizes and honors BRIANA EVANS for her visionary leadership, her bold and unwavering dedication to equity, and her profound impact on the residents and communities of Redwood City and San Mateo County; and extends deepest appreciation and warmest wishes for continued success as she enters this next chapter of extraordinary public service.
