

OFFICE OF
SUSTAINABILITY
COUNTY OF SAN MATEO

Office of Sustainability Climate Action Update

Carolyn Bloede, Director
June 13, 2023

Strong Policy Leadership

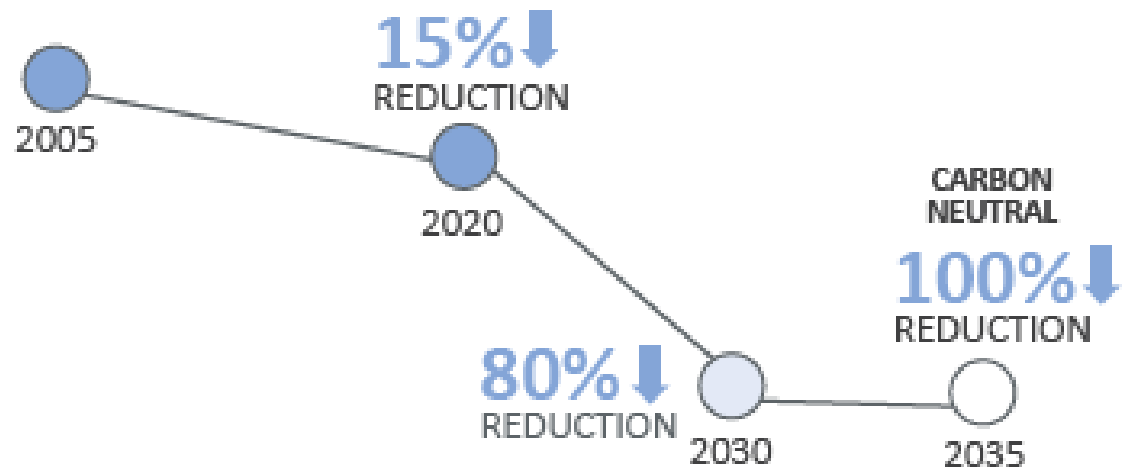

Climate Protection Progress

- Clean power- Peninsula Clean Energy
- EV Transition- 192 County Charging Stations
- Existing Building Electrification- East Palo Alto government building
- Food Diversion- 5.4M pounds/year of surplus food recovered through the Edible Food Recovery Program

Government Operations Climate Action Plan Progress

Climate Protection Moving Forward

- Electric Vehicles and Charging Infrastructure- developing a strategic plan with all departments and facilities
- Equitable electrification
- Organic Diversion compliance- providing resources and assistance
- Carbon Sequestration- innovative collaboration model for farms

Sustainable Communities Progress

- Active Transportation- North Fair Oaks railroad crossing concept design
- Home for All- collaborate on housing and homeless initiatives across County
- Compostable Foodware Ordinance- reduce plastics contaminating waterways and filling landfills

Sustainable Communities Moving Forward

- Housing and Homelessness- relaunch task forces and new messaging campaign
- Employee Commute Program- promote active alternative commute options
- Active Transportation- Coleman and Ringwood Transport Study completion

Climate Resilience Progress

- South Coast Sea Level Rise- assessment of impacts on shoreline south of Half Moon Bay
- Community Resilience Pilots- back up battery, air purifiers, air quality monitors, cooling
- Clean water- state mandated Municipal Regional Stormwater Permit

Climate Resilience Moving Forward

- Scaling Resilience Pilots- to reduce impacts on vulnerable communities
- Stormwater- leading and coordinating work to pool resources
- Planning- support for the Multi-Jurisdictional Hazard Mitigation Plan, Safety Element, Environmental Justice Element

OFFICE OF
SUSTAINABILITY
COUNTY OF SAN MATEO

Thank You!