UNITEDLY

Unitedly is a nonprofit based in San Mateo County and one of the few organizations in the County dedicated specifically to advancing equity for Asian families and communities.

Unitedly strengthens Asian communities and the broader community by increasing visibility, support, and participation across education, civic life, and local systems. We work alongside residents, government, and community agencies to ensure systems are inclusive, culturally and linguistically responsive, and accessible.

OUR PROGRAMS

Early Care and Education Credentialing Program & Family Support

The first in the region to support Chinese-speaking residents in obtaining credentials and strengthening the childcare workforce.

Multilingual Hotline

Providing trusted, language-accessible assistance and referrals in-language.

Research and Referral Services

Connecting families to healthcare, social services, and public resources.

OUR PROGRAMS

Game Changers Program

Supporting high school-aged AANHPI youth through leadership development, wellness, mentorship, and civic engagement.

South San Francisco Economic Development Center Satellite Office

Provides in-person assistance in Cantonese, Mandarin, and Taishanese.
