Program Description
Community Overcoming Relationship Abuse (CORA)
CDBG- OffSet Funding - FY 2014-15

CORA operates an emergency Shelter that provides confidential and safe living environment for victims of domestic violence.

In consideration of the funding assistance payments set forth in Exhibit B3, Contractor shall provide the following services: Contractor expects to serve at least 25 low-income victims of domestic violence households by providing a safe confidential living environment, as well as counseling and case management.

1. Required Quarterly Reporting: Contractor shall submit a Quarterly Performance Report as soon as practicable after the end of each quarter (but no later than 30 days after the quarter's end) and by early July during the last quarter. Required quarterly reporting will consist of two parts, to be submitted onto the City Data Services website:
 - a) Performance Summary, which will summarize the number of clients served by their ethnicity and income. Data will be entered for both households and individuals. Data on domicile (city) of clients will also be provided.
 - b) Narrative Report, which provides a narrative of highlights/details of both the funded activity and of the Contractor's organization. The narrative is required even if no activity has taken place within the quarter.
