Subject: Appointments to the Housing and Community Development Committee

RECOMMENDATION:

Recommendation for appointments of two at-large members to the Housing and Community Development Committee, for terms ending December 31, 2019:

- A) Ramanan Raghavendran; and
- B) Jenny Skoble.

BACKGROUND:

The Housing and Community Development Committee provides recommendations to help develop and improve viable communities by providing decent housing and suitable living environments and expanding economic opportunities principally for persons of very low to moderate income.

DISCUSSION:

Ramanan Raghavendran is a resident of Burlingame and has served on a variety of non-profit boards over the last 25 years. He is currently chairman of Amasia Management, LLC, a venture capital firm that specializes in helping technology companies get global.

Jenny Skoble is a resident of Half Moon Bay who has participated in the city of Half Moon Bay's NET Class, and is also an attorney with a background working with low-income clients in non-profit legal services.

These appointments contribute to the 2025 Shared Vision statement of a Collaborative Community. Our diverse population works well together to build strong communities, effective government and a prosperous economy, civic engagement – including voting, public service, charitable giving, volunteerism, and participation in public discussions of important issues – is uniformly high among the diverse population of San Mateo County.

FISCAL IMPACT:

None.
