THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS
COUNTY OF SAN MATEO, STATE OF CALIFORNIA
RESOLUTION HONORING AND COMMENDING

Lynda Burton

AS THE

2013 Barbara Hammerman Award Recipient

WHEREAS, on this 8th day of October, two thousand and thirteen, LYNDIA BURTON is honored for her dedication and exemplary service as a longstanding advocate for victims of domestic violence through her 28 years as an attorney at Legal Aid Society of San Mateo County; and

WHEREAS, LYNDIA BURTON has long been involved in the training of attorneys and court personnel in family law matters involving domestic violence and was instrumental in forming the first restraining order clinic run by the Women's Center in the early 1990s ; and

WHEREAS, LYNDIA BURTON has been acknowledged for her extraordinary work in domestic violence, as a Women's Hall of Fame recipient in 1997 and the Elinor Falvey award from the San Mateo County Bar Association in 1999 ; and

WHEREAS, LYNDIA BURTON's vocal, active and dedicated legal work has impacted thousands in San Mateo County, helping to turn survivors' lives around, representing low-income clients with compassion through all aspects and phases of family law and domestic violence cases, giving them hope for their future.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Board of Supervisors of San Mateo County recognizes LYNDIA BURTON as the 2013 BARBARA HAMMERMAN AWARD RECIPIENT. The Board expresses its gratitude and extends best wishes for many more years of service.
