RESOLUTION HONORING AND COMMENDING THE

San Mateo Public Library

In Recognition of San Mateo Public Library Community Day

WHEREAS, the first San Mateo Public Library was built in 1885; and currently includes three branches – Hillsdale, Marina and Main Library, which opened in 2006; and

WHEREAS the mission is to offer quality library services, promote ongoing learning and literacy and provide access to information through technology; and

WHEREAS, San Mateo Public Library Foundation was founded in 2004 and is made up of volunteers who fundraise to financially support the changing community needs and ensure high-quality library programs and services in the city of San Mateo; and

WHEREAS, San Mateo Public Library Community Day celebrates the San Mateo Public Library Foundation's 25 years of supporting San Mateo libraries and access to high quality libraries for the residents of San Mateo; and

WHEREAS, this free event is meant to be a celebration for residents of all ages and promotes all that libraries have to offer to the community,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Board of Supervisors of the County of San Mateo, State of California, hereby commends SAN MATEO PUBLIC LIBRARY and the SAN MATEO PUBLIC LIBRARY FOUNDATION for their years of dedication and service to the residents of San Mateo County.
